Executive Certificate in Business & Public Event Management

Build your career in the exciting field of event management

About Event Training Australia - An Asia Pacific Institute for Events Management International Centre of Excellence

Event Training Australia (ETA) is an Asia Pacific Institute for Events Management certified International Centre of Excellence in Event Management Education and Training. ETA has its origins in the award winning Australian Centre for Event Management (ACEM), University of Technology, Sydney, and was established to continue, and build upon, ACEM's event training and education legacy. As such, ETA draws on over 20 years of experience in the development of innovative practice based education and training programs in the event management field. This understanding is further evidenced by ETA's team of presenters (see <https://eventtrainingaustralia.com.au/event-training-presenters/>). All ETA presenters possess extensive backgrounds both as educators and as event management practitioners responsible for the planning and delivery of a variety of business and public events including conferences, product launches, festivals, exhibitions, corporate parties, parades and seminars/workshops.

About the Marketing Institute of Singapore

Founded in 1973, the Marketing Institute of Singapore (MIS) is a not-for-profit organisation that serves as Singapore's national body for sales and marketing professionals. Since its establishment, MIS has nurtured more than 50,000 sales and marketing practitioners through its professional learning and development programmes, and has provided professional networking opportunities for thousands of its members through its diverse series of events. Voted as Singapore's Best Corporate Learning & Development Provider, MIS provides a unique and holistic platform through which its members can further develop their professional skills and knowledge. For more information on MIS, please visit www.mis.org.sg/seminars.

Who is the Executive Certificate in Business and Public Events designed for?

This program is specifically intended for individuals that:

- need to build event management skills and knowledge quickly because of their expanded work role;
- seek to develop careers in the event management field, but currently lack the skills/knowledge to do so; or
- are currently employed in an event coordinator or event manager role and wish to ensure they are employing industry best practice.

As a result, this program seeks to aid the career development of those employed, or seeking employment, as:

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| • Corporate in-house event organisers | • Festival managers | • Educational institution event managers |
| • Special event coordinators/managers | • Parade directors | • Sport event managers |
| • Conference/meeting planners | • Exhibition organisers | • Hotel/resort/cruise ship event coordinators |
| • Charity event organisers | • Wedding planners | |
| • Executive/personal assistants with responsibility for event planning/delivery | • Government event planners/coordinators | |

What makes this program unique?

The Executive Certificate in Event Management has been delivered to over 4000 participants in 10 countries, including Singapore where it is now in its 10th year. It is based on the texts written by its presenters which are used in colleges and universities internationally, as well as by event professionals. Evidence of its capacity to upskill practitioners and those seeking to develop careers in the area, is reflected in both its designers' receipt of a national award in the education and training category of the Australian Event Awards, and the appointment of Event Training Australia as a Centre of Training Excellence by the Asia Pacific Institute for Event Management.

What will participants learn?

In three days of practical training, participants develop an applied understanding of the event management life cycle inclusive of concept development, planning, delivery, shutdown and evaluation. Specifically, the program addresses:

- The impact on event planning and management of the context in which a given event takes place- legal, organisational, technological, social and environmental
- Developing, or responding to, event briefs and bid documents
- Establishing an event's purpose, along with associated goals and objectives
- Innovative approaches to developing an event concept
- Considerations in delivering online and hybrid events
- Key considerations in creating a program for an event
- Venue/site selection, design and layout (including the use of Computer Aided Design software)
- Theming and event production practices
- Project management tools (e.g. Gantt charts, production schedules, run sheets, checklists), and their use
- Artificial intelligence and events
- Event management software
- Development and use of event manuals
- Managing the various forms of risk associated with event planning and delivery
- Planning and delivering environmentally 'friendly' events
- Practices for ensuring events are delivered in line with the plans established for them
- Considerations in event shutdown
- Event evaluation techniques
